Health Clinic 2017—March 26

As most of you know, our annual health clinic is scheduled for later in March this year due to several conflicts. This date has several advantages anyway: no time change, better weather and doesn't interfere with Rich's annual trip to bike week.

I will be contacting folks for help, although I think we will have many of the same folks working as last year. It is a long day, but it is our best money maker for the year.

We will still be offering eye exams with Dr. Metzler, heart exams with Dr. Schober, and genetic testing at a discount through Pawprint.

Email if you need appointments. If you want to be guaranteed minimal wait time, early morning appointments are your best bet because if you've been there before, despite our best efforts, we get backed up.

Please see the flier for further details and help spread the word!!

~ Jennifer

Labrador DNA Samples Needed

Hello,

Please help us to serve you better.

DDC Veterinary is currently seeking validation cheek swab samples from previously DNA tested Affected dogs for 2 specific inherited diseases:

- 1) Retinal Dysplasia/Oculoskeletal Dysplasia 1 (RD/OSD1)
- 2) Skeletal Dysplasia Type 2 (SD2) associated with dwarfism

Ultimately, we would like to begin offering this test to our clients and apply the same multi-dog and multi-test discounts like we do for all of our other inherited trait/disease tests but to do so, we need your help.

If you can help, please reply back to this email with the number of Affected dogs you have specific to each disease along with your contact information (name, address, phone number). As always, your information and participation in this project is 100% confidential.

We will ship you the swab kits next day courier and will include a prepaid return airbill. We will also provide you with 3 free canine traits or disease tests (a $58 value each) for sending us these validation samples.

Please let us know as quickly as possible, we would like to get started offering this test very soon.

Thank you for your time and for your continued business.
