SPECIALTY NEWS!

Everyone Please Stand Up And Take A Bow

~Susan Moseley

The 2013 Specialty is in the books, hopefully we're all rested and resuming our lives. What a great couple of days. All of our friends brought some of the most beautiful Labradors, the Judges showed up and the party was on. And it was a success because of every club member going above and beyond to make it happen. I'd like to single out a few people for special applause but the list gets very long very quickly. So to each person listed please just add that this couldn't have happened without you, you were awesome: Sally, Lori B, Steve L, Jennifer, Joni, Dennis, Chris K, Linda, Sue, John, Jan, Cindy, Lori A, Steve H, Christine, Andrea. And by the way, who made those cookies!

So we worked on the fly to remedy a few problems (sacrificing ring size for ring mats, Under-caffination on Saturday morning, chilliness that led to a campfire camaraderie) and it seemed like everyone left happy. Not that I did an exit poll. But most people liked the building (felt like an independent Specialty), the parking (no cones necessary), the prizes ("you guys have great prizes, better than Bare Bones") and of course the food. I can't wait to see the pictures.

The Raffle

A Note From Mel's Diner

~Jennifer Stotts

I think our hospitality once again kept the crowd full, warm and happy. When I thought about it, I realized we are one of few, if not the only club who provides a free, hot lunch for our exhibitors. Many thanks to all those who helped out with the "diner". Most importantly, thanks to Joni Palumbo for volunteering to make the soup....with my crazy schedule, I'm not sure how I would have made this all happen otherwise. Thanks to Chris Bell and Brian Tipton for their cornbread contributions, and to the Mel's diner staff, Greg King, Jan Eichensehr and Chris Bell. Doing full hospitality for two days was a big undertaking, but we pulled it off! Finally, thanks to Dennis, who carried, moved, lifted, etc, and mostly without complaint!! Joni and I learned a lot and will certainly have a better idea how to do this next time!
