"He cannot be a gentleman which loveth not a dog." -John Northbrooke

The leaves are just barely beginning to turn, the temperatures outdoors are almost tolerable, there are no tumbleweeds the size of Chihuahuas rolling down the kennel aisle, my garden looks like it was hit by napalm and I am buried under a six inch stack of essays....must be fall!! And it has been interesting so far.

The first week of school I received a visit from our friendly (no, he really is quite amiable) regional AKC inspector; he must know I am a teacher and likes to make that first week more stressful! The inspection went smoothly and we chatted for a while afterward about a number of topics, but during the course of conversation, he told me that if we (dog breeders) are not cognizant of the current house bill that has been written regarding "commercial breeders"/kennels etc., we should be. He said it is stringent legislation and if passed would be similar in some respects to that of Pennsylvania. Before I had a chance to get online and research, Christine sent us all the link with the bill on it. If you haven't researched and read this, you should and you should write your representative. I plan to talk with mine and get more specifics with regard to the bill and when it might be discussed and voted on. If you enjoy breeding and showing dogs as we now know it, pay attention. If this one doesn't pass, another one will come along because PETA and HSUS are very powerful entities.

Ok, I am stepping down off my soap box now to remind you that the October meeting is an important one. We are meeting at Lori Bentine's house and she has graciously offered to provide lasagna for dinner and if you bring a gift for the raffle, your name will go into a drawing for a bottle of vodka with a labrador field scene on it. We need to wrap up the last minute details for the specialty. It has been very trying in the last month to say the least....we will be having a judge change for the weekend, which we can tell you more about at the meeting, so there has been a lot of scrambling around during the last week trying to get that mission accomplished. Other glitches with our show secretary, mistakes in the premium list, and just general details have nearly made us crazy. We have done the best we can this year under less than optimum circumstances. To say that I will be deliriously happy come November 1 is an understatement. If you would like to contribute in some way, call Dennis or the following folks:

- * Hospitality Chair: Tracey Rithaler (welcoming donations of baked goods)
- * Decorations: no chair - please bring a couple pumpkins, mums and any other fall decorations; may need someone to transport straw
- * Judges' hospitality: anyone interested in going to dinner with the judges - as long as you are not showing
- * Raffle: Lori Bentine - get items to her for raffle, our biggest money maker

Specialty aside, we also take nominations from the floor for the open board positions and we have a Christmas party to plan. So, hope to see you at the meeting and get online and do your homework!

~Jennifer

The Hartz Mountain Corporation Recalls Hartz Naturals Real Beef Treats Because of Possible Salmonella Health Risk

Contact:

Hartz Consumer Affairs
(800) 275-1414

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE --
SECAUCUS, N.J. - September 3, 2010 -

The Hartz Mountain Corporation is voluntarily recalling one specific lot of Hartz Naturals Real Beef Treats for Dogs due to concerns that one or more bags within the lot may have been potentially contaminated with Salmonella. Hartz is fully cooperating with the US Food and Drug Administration in this voluntary recall.

Salmonella is an organism which can cause serious infections in young children, frail or elderly people, and others with weakened immune systems, all of whom are at particular risk from exposure and should avoid handling these products.

Salmonella symptoms may include fever, diarrhea, abdominal pain, and nausea in both dogs and humans. Anyone experiencing the symptoms of Salmonella infection should seek immediate medical attention. Owners of dogs exhibiting these symptoms should also seek veterinary assistance.

Hartz Mountain Corporation is recalling 74,700 8-oz bags of Hartz Naturals Real Beef Treats for Dogs, lot code BZ0969101E, UPC number 32700-11519, which were imported by Hartz from a Brazilian supplier, Bertin S.A., and which were distributed to a number of customers in the United States. While regular testing conducted by Bertin (prior to shipment to the US) did not detect the presence of Salmonella in any packages of this product, random sample testing conducted by FDA did indicate the presence of Salmonella. Hartz is aggressively investigating the source of the problem.

Although Hartz has not received any reports of animals or humans becoming ill as a result of coming into contact with this product, Hartz is taking immediate steps to remove the product from all retail stores and distribution centers. Dog owners having purchased this product should check the lot code on their bag, and, if the code is not visible, or if the bag has lot code BZ0969101E imprinted thereon, they should immediately discontinue use of the product and discard it in a proper manner.

Consumers can contact Hartz at 1-800-275-1414 at any time with any questions they may have and for information on how to obtain reimbursement for purchased product.
