ARE WE READY FOR ANOTHER SPECIALTY?

The 2012 Back-to-Back Specialty is in the books with great entry numbers, 41 Sweeps and 133 Regular entries on Saturday and 42 Sweeps and 127 Regular entries on Sunday. It was the 1st year having the show indoors and a lot of folks weren't thrilled about not being outdoors. But for the weekend of our Specialties we looked brilliant for making the decision. It was cold, wet, windy and I'm sure we would have all been sick for days if we had been outdoors. Many converts to having the show indoors at the end of October in Delaware!

Plans are in the works to have our rings indoors again in 2013 in a larger building with room for a grooming/kenneling area as well the raffle and Hospitality. And at this point there won't be any other breeds in the building (Don't hold me to this last statement).

So, to bring everyone up to date, the potential judging panel was chosen at the November meeting and most of the selections have agreed to judge at the 2013 Shows. TENTATIVELY, after AKC approval, signed contracts and whelping schedules have been completed the Saturday Sweeps Judge will be Nancy Chargo and the Regular Judge will be Kendall Herr and the Sunday Sweeps Judge will be Cindy Cone and the Regular Judge will be Roy Cone.

SHE MUST HAVE LABRADORS

A LADY IN THE Midwest attended a dog-training school whose instructor told her you could test a dog's temperament by how he acted when you were lying on the ground apparently injured. A good dog would lick your face, a bad dog might even bite you.

One night she decided to try theory in her living room. She jumped up; clutched her chest, groaned and fell to the floor. Her two dogs looked at her, looked at each other – and rushed to the coffee table to eat her pizza!
